CHARITY NAVIGATOR GIVES ALICE'S KIDS TOP RATING!

Charity Navigator is the premier rating service for U.S. charities. They rate the cost-effectiveness and overall health of the charity's programs and that informs donors of not just where their dollars are going but what their dollars are doing. We are THRILLED to announce that Charity Navigator just gave us their 4-Star rating!

ALICE'S KIDS FEATURED IN WASHINGTON POST

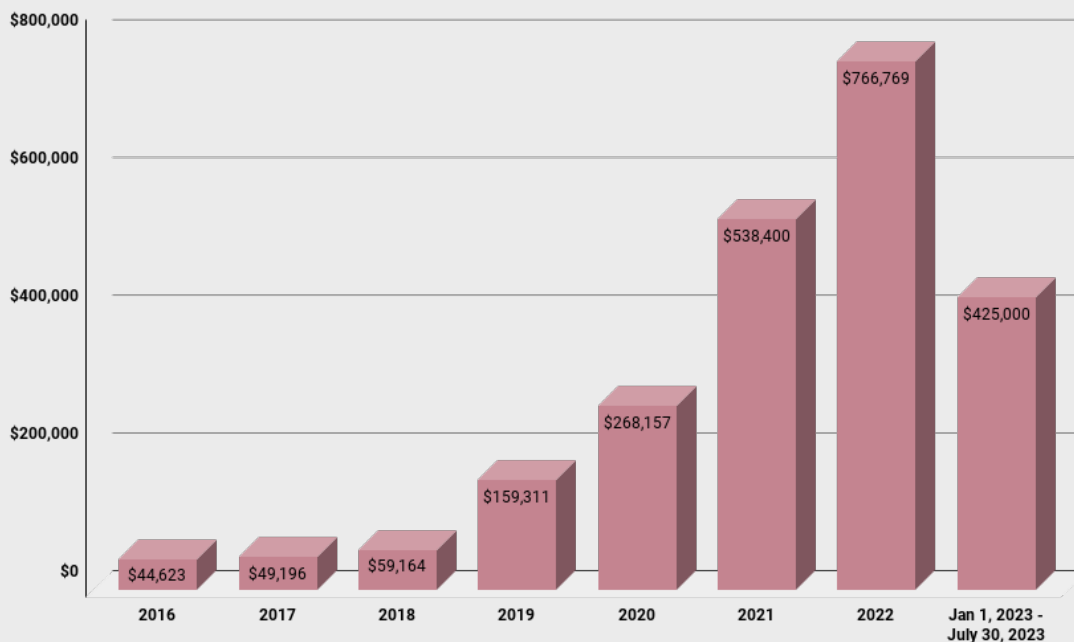

As graduation season approached, Washington Post's Theresa Vargas shared how we help students pay for their senior dues. Read the full story here.

SIGLER BING FOUNDATION TO MATCH NEW DONATIONS

The image is a screenshot of a tweet from the account "Alice's Kids" (@alicewillhelp). The tweet text reads: "If you've never donated to us, in the next 2 weeks the Sigler Bing Foundation will match any NEW donation up to $15,000! Go to aliceskids.org/donate and note you are a new donor. Please take advantage of this great offer. Thanks to you & Sigler Bing for the support!" The tweet includes a profile picture of a globe and a three-dot menu icon in the top right corner.

THE LATEST FINANCIALS

So far in 2023, we have spent $452,000 on 5,068 kids. As you can see from this chart, we are on a pace to break last year's spending record. This is all possible because of our generous donors.

IN ADDITION TO THE USUAL REQUESTS, IN JULY WE PAID FOR...

Humidifier for 10 year-old boy with severe asthma.

Alterations for 15-year-old girl's quinceanera dress.

Yoga mats for an 18 year old girl with self-injurious behavior, including head-banging on hard surfaces.

Interactive audiobooks and games to help a 13-year-old boy learn English. He and his mom escaped drug cartels in Costa Rica.

ALICE'S KIDS

Alice's Kids is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that seeks to enhance the self-esteem of children in need by providing them with targeted individual assistance to facilitate their participation in scholastic, recreational and social activities.
